I.A.No.1/2024-25 in IW 66

Heard. This is an application for condonation of delay in presenting annexed representation/complaint on the ground that the earlier application sent by him was delivered according to postal authorities but it did not find place with the office of Vidyut Ombudsman and as such he is presenting this petition, but this contention is devoid of merit since the earlier application sent by the petitioner was received in this office on 11.3.2024 under inward No.685 and the return endorsement was sent to the representationist on 12.3.2024 at 5.06 pm by email.

Therefore, when an earlier application was returned and when it is not represented, this delay condonation application for the grounds urged which are contrary to the facts cannot be allowed and as such this petition entails in dismissal.

In the result, this delay condonation petition is dismissed. Petitioner is at liberty to prosecute the earlier application in accordance with law.
